contributions into an IORP.

(2) Words and expressions which are also used in the Act shall in these regulations have the same meaning as in the Act.

PART I

MALTESE IORPs RECEIVING CONTRIBUTIONS FROM SPONSORING UNDERTAKINGS LOCATED IN OTHER MEMBER STATES or EEA STATES

Sponsorship by sponsoring undertakings located within territories of Member States or EEA States other than Malta.

3. A Maltese IORP may accept sponsorship in terms of the Occupational Pensions Directive from sponsoring undertakings located within territories of Member States or EEA States other than Malta, if it holds an authorisation in terms of regulation 5 of these regulations.

Notification to the competent authority.

4. A Maltese IORP wishing to accept sponsorship in terms of the Occupational Pensions Directive by a sponsoring undertaking located within the territory of a Member State or an EEA State other than Malta, shall notify its intention to accept the sponsorship to the competent authority. The Maltese IORP, shall notify the competent authority of:

- (a) the host Member State or the host Member States;
- (b) the name of the sponsoring undertaking;
- (c) the main characteristics of the occupational retirement plan to be operated for the sponsoring undertaking; and such other information as may be specified in the Pension Rules issued under the Act.

Application to the competent authority.

5. (1) Where the competent authority, receives an application for authorisation by a Maltese IORP wishing to accept sponsorship as referred to in regulation 3 of these regulations, it shall, before granting the authorisation, be satisfied that the Maltese IORP meets the conditions described in sub-regulation (2) of this regulation.

(2) The conditions to be met under sub-regulation (1) are:

(a) that the Maltese IORP is registered in the register referred to in subarticle (11) of article 9 of the Act; and

(b) the matters set out in article 9 (1)(b) to (f) of the Occupational Pensions Directive are satisfied.

(3) When giving such authorisation, the competent authority shall immediately inform EIOPA.

Communication to Host Member State.

6. Where the competent authority has been notified in accordance with regulation 4 of these regulations, and unless it has reason to doubt that the administrative structure or the financial situation of the Maltese IORP or the good repute and professional qualifications or experience of the persons running the Maltese IORP are compatible with the operations proposed in the host Member State, it shall within three months of receiving all the information referred to in regulation 4 of these regulations, communicate that information to the European regulatory authority of the host Member State and inform the Maltese IORP accordingly.

Notification of requirements of social and labour law.

7. Before the Maltese IORP starts to operate an occupational retirement plan for a sponsoring undertaking in a Member State or EEA State other than Malta, the European regulatory authority, shall within two months of receiving the information referred to in regulation 4 of these regulations, inform the competent authority, if appropriate, of the requirements of social and labour law relevant to the field of occupational pensions under which the occupational retirement plan sponsored by the sponsoring undertaking in the host Member State must be operated and any rules that are to be applied in accordance with Article 18(7) of the Occupational Pensions Directive and with regulation 9 of these regulations. The competent authority shall communicate this information to the Maltese IORP.

Commencement of operations by a Maltese IORP.

8. On receiving the communication referred to in regulation 7 of these regulations, or if no communication is received from the competent authority on the expiry of the period provided for in regulation 7 of these regulations, the Maltese IORP may start to operate the occupational retirement plan sponsored by the sponsoring undertaking in the host Member State in accordance with the host

Member State's requirements of social and labour law relevant to the field of occupational pensions, and any rules that are to be applied in accordance with Article 18(7) of the Occupational Pensions Directive and regulation 7 of these regulations.

Information requirements imposed by the European regulatory authority of the host Member State.

9. In particular, a Maltese IORP sponsored by a sponsoring undertaking located in a Member State or an EEA State, other than Malta, shall also be subject, in respect of the corresponding employees entitled to retirement benefits, to any information requirements imposed by the European regulatory authority of the host Member State on IORPs located in that Member State, in accordance with Article 11 of the Occupational Pensions Directive.

Notification of significant changes in requirements of social and labour law.

10. The European regulatory authority of the host Member State shall, in accordance with Article 20 (8) of the Occupational Pensions Directive, inform the competent authority of any significant change in the host Member State's requirements of social and labour law relevant to the field of occupational pensions which may affect the characteristics of the occupational retirement plan insofar as it concerns the operation of the occupational retirement plan sponsored by a sponsoring undertaking in the host Member State and in any rules that have to be applied in accordance with Article 18(7) of the Occupational Pensions Directive and with regulation 9 of these regulations.

Ongoing supervision.

11. The Maltese IORP shall be subject to ongoing supervision by the European regulatory authority of the host Member State as to the compliance of its activities with the host Member State's requirements of labour and social law relevant to the field of occupational pensions referred to in regulation 7 of these regulations and with the information requirements referred to in regulation 8 of these regulations. Where the European regulatory authority identifies irregularities and informs the competent authority of such irregularities, the competent authority shall, in coordination with the European regulatory authority of the host Member State, take the necessary measures to ensure that the Maltese IORP desists from breaching such social and labour laws.

Breach of applicable provisions of host Member State's

12. If, despite the measures taken by the competent authority, pursuant to regulation 11 of these regulations, the Maltese IORP requirements of social and labour law.

persists in breaching the applicable provisions of the host Member State's requirements of social and labour law relevant to the field of occupational pensions, the European regulatory authority of the host Member State may, after informing the competent authority, take appropriate measures to prevent or penalize further irregularities, including, where appropriate, preventing the Maltese IORP from operating in the host Member State for the sponsoring undertaking located in the host State.

Prohibition or restriction of the activities of a Maltese IORP.

13.(1) The competent authority may prohibit or restrict the activities of a Maltese IORP in particular if, in the case of cross-border activity as referred to in regulation 3 of these regulations, the Maltese IORP does not comply with the requirements of social and labour law of the host Member State relevant to the field of occupational pensions.

(2) The competent authority may also restrict or prohibit the free disposal of the assets of the Maltese IORP when, in particular:

(a) the Maltese IORP has failed to establish sufficient technical provisions, as applicable, in respect of the entire business or has insufficient assets to cover the technical provisions; or

(b) the Maltese IORP has failed to hold the regulatory own funds, as applicable;

(3) Any decision by the competent authority in terms of this regulation shall be supported by precise reasons and notified to the Maltese IORP in question.

Technical funding requirements.

14.(1) In the event of cross-border activity as referred to in regulation 3 of these regulations, the Maltese IORP is required to have its technical funding requirements at all times fully funded in respect of the total range of occupational retirement plans operated by it.

(2) If these conditions are not met, the competent authority shall intervene in accordance with article 14 of the Occupational Pensions Directive. To comply with this requirement the competent authority may require ring-fencing of the assets and liabilities.

Exchange of information with EIOPA.

15. The competent authority shall report to EIOPA, the provisions of Maltese law of prudential nature relevant in the field of occupational pensions, which are not covered by Maltese social and labour law. Such information shall be updated on a regular basis and not less than once every two years.

PART II

SPONSORING UNDERTAKING LOCATED IN MALTA SPONSORING A EUROPEAN IORP

Sponsoring undertaking located in Malta sponsoring a European IORP.

16. A sponsoring undertaking located in Malta may sponsor a European IORP.

Notification by European regulatory authority to competent authority.

17. In terms of the Occupational Pensions Directive, where the European regulatory authority of the home Member State has been notified by the European IORP in accordance with Article 20(3) of the Occupational Pensions Directive, and unless it has reason to doubt that the administrative structure or the financial situation of the European IORP or the good repute and professional qualifications or experience of the persons running the European IORP are compatible with the operations proposed in Malta, it shall within three months of receiving all the information referred to in the Occupational Pensions Directive, communicate that information to the competent authority and inform the European IORP accordingly.

Notification of requirements of social and labour law.

18.(1) Before the European IORP starts to accept sponsorship from a sponsoring undertaking located in Malta, the competent authority shall, within two months of receiving the information referred to in regulation 17 of these regulations, from the European regulatory authority of the home Member State of the European IORP, inform the said European regulatory authority, if appropriate of the requirements of social and labour law relevant to the field of occupational pensions under which the occupational retirement plan sponsored by a sponsoring undertaking located in Malta must be operated and any rules that are to be applied in accordance with Article 18(7) of the Occupational Pensions Directive and with regulation 20 of these regulations.

(2) In terms of the Occupational Pensions Directive, the European regulatory authority of the home Member State shall communicate this information to the European IORP.

Commencement of operations by a European IORP.

19. On receiving the communication referred to in regulation 17 of these regulations, or if no communication is received from the European regulatory authority of the home Member State on expiry of the period provided for in the said regulation, the European IORP may start to operate the occupational retirement plan sponsored by a sponsoring undertaking located in Malta in accordance with Malta's requirements of social and labour law relevant to the field of occupational pensions, and any rules that are to be applied in accordance with Article 18 (7) of the Occupational Pensions Directive and regulation 20 of these regulations.

Information requirements imposed by the competent authority.

20. A European IORP sponsored by a sponsoring undertaking located in Malta shall also be subject, in respect of the corresponding employees entitled to retirement benefits, to any information requirements imposed by the competent authority on Maltese IORPs, in accordance with Article 11 of the Occupational Pensions Directive.

Notification of significant changes in requirements of social and labour law.

21. The competent authority shall inform the European regulatory authority in the home Member State of the European IORP of any significant change in Malta's requirements of social and labour law relevant to the field of occupational pensions which may affect the characteristics of the retirement scheme insofar as it concerns the operation of the occupational retirement plan and in any rules that have to be applied in accordance with Article 18(7) of the Occupational Pensions Directive and with regulation 20 of these regulations.

Ongoing supervision.

22. The European IORP shall be subject to ongoing supervision by the competent authority as to the compliance of its activities with Malta's requirements of social and labour law relevant to the field of occupational pensions referred to in regulation 18 of these regulations and with the information requirements referred to in regulation 19 of these regulations. Where the competent authority identifies irregularities by a European IORP, the competent authority shall immediately inform the European regulatory authority in the home Member State of the European IORP of such irregularities. In terms of the Occupational Pensions Directive, the European regulatory authority of the home Member State shall, in coordination with the competent authority, take the necessary measures to ensure that the European IORP desists from breaching such social and labour laws.

Breach of applicable provisions of Malta's requirements of social and labour law.

23. If, despite the measures taken by the European regulatory authority of the home Member State or because appropriate measures are lacking in the home Member State, the European IORP persists in breaching the applicable provisions of Malta's requirements of social and labour law relevant to the field of occupational pensions, the competent authority may, after informing the European regulatory authority of the home Member State, take appropriate measures to prevent or penalize further irregularities, including, where appropriate, preventing the European IORP from operating in Malta for the sponsoring undertaking located in Malta.

PART III

SCOPE

Scope.

24. The objective of these regulations is intended to implement the relevant provisions of the Occupational Pensions Directive and they shall be interpreted and applied accordingly.
